Coastal security for Andaman and Nicobar Islands tl333. SHRI AJAY MAROO: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

the system of security of coastal areas of Andaman and Nicobar Islands at present; the approved strength of posts in the agency being used for this work;

the posts laying vacant in it;

whether it is a fact that an order for procurement of two helicopters having two 'fixed wings' and boats had been placed few year ago to keep vigil at the coasts; and if so, the reasons for not providing the same to them so far?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) At present Police Marine Force of Andaman and Nicobar Police undertakes regular patrolling in creek and harbor areas. Indian Navy and Coast Guard also undertake regular air and marine surveillance in the adjoining sea waters of Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Police Marine Force has a sanctioned strength of 103 posts of various ranks.

two.

No order has been placed for procurement of helicopters and fixed wing aircrafts. However, two medium size boats and six small speed boats were sanctioned in 1999 and have been deployed in coastal areas.
